The Competition:

- ✦ Contestants must ensure they fulfil the contestant criteria for entry. Those who do not meet the criteria will be eliminated from judging.
- ✦ Entrants must be strictly 18 years and over.
- ✦ Entrants will be identified by a numbered paddle which will be provided prior to each category.
- ✦ Contestants will take to the stage in groups. The judges will choose successful contestants from each heat to move forward into the finals.

Heats:

- ✦ The Judging panel will select their top contestants in each heat to proceed to the final.
- ✦ Whilst the group is still on stage, the MC will announce those successful contestants through to the finals and then the group will file off stage.
- ✦ Contestants not selected for the category final, will depart the judging area, and are required to hand back their numbered paddle to a Fashions on the Field Staff Member.
- ✦ Successful contestants selected for the final MUST KEEP their own number and remain in the judging area.

Finals:

- ✦ Contestants selected from category heats will progress into the category final. They will have retained their numbers from the heats and will be required to go back onto stage for final judging.
- ✦ Judges will select their top 3 contestants – issuing them with 5, 3, or 1 point. This will then be tallied and then the winner and the runner up will be announced.
- ✦ The contestant with the highest score will be winner of the 2022 Albury Racing Club Fashions on the Field - Commercial Club Albury Gold Cup and one runner-up will also be announced.

Each category should take about 30 minutes with approximately 100+ participants

No judging will be held while the races are on.
